

PARTNERS

The partner network supporting Job Film Days continues to grow also for the festival's fourth edition. This year's edition will feature around 60 collaborations, showing great attention aroused locally and the ability to involve different actors in a transversal manner.

New partners: Archivio Nazionale Cinematografico della Resistenza, Bottega Miller Association, Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia - Animazione, Edit, Fondazione dell'Avvocatura Torinese 'Fulvio Croce', Caracol Gallery, IRES Piemonte, Open Incet, Ordine dei Medici di Torino, Rete al femminile, Spazio Colla, Torino Città per le Donne and Videocommunity.

The following partners have been confirmed from last year's edition: AAMOD (Audiovisual Archive of the Workers and Democratic Movement Foundation), ACLI Città Metropolitana di Torino and ACLI Torino Service, Agenda del Cinema Torino, Aiace Torino, AMNC (National Museum of Cinema Association) and LiberAzioni, ANMIL Onlus (National Association among Workplace Mutilated and Handicapped victims) and Radio ANMIL, Associazione Giuristi Democratici, Associazione Scuole Tecniche San Carlo, Aurora Penne and Officina della Scrittura, Camera di Commercio di Torino, CGIL, Centrale Arthouse Cinema, Greenwich Village Cinema, Cinetrab, Cisl, CNA Torino, CSC - Archivio Nazionale Cinema Impresa, Dams, EBAP (Piedmontese Artisan Bilateral Entity), Enaip Piemonte, Engim Piemonte, Film Commission Torino Piemonte, Fondazione Brodolini, INAIL Piemonte, Ismel - Polo del '900, ITC-ILO, Magistratura Democratica, Movies Inspired, The National Museum of Cinema, MyMovies, Ordine degli Avvocati di Torino, Ordine dei Consulenti del Lavoro di Torino, Piemonte Movie, Politecnico di Torino, Peru Pontifical Catholic University and Lima Film Festival, Rai Teche and Rai for Sustainability, Security and Work, SNCCI (National Italian Movie Critics Syndicate), Sottodiciotto, Uil, Unione Culturale Franco Antonicelli and University of Turin.

Sponsorships from the City of Turin, the Metropolitan City of Turin, the Piedmont Regional Council and the Piedmont Region are joining the network of partners.